BEST PLACES TO EAT OUT

ARIES RESIDENCE SUITE

It's true. 9.6 miles from Aries Residence Suites South Heart, ND. Location lies a little slice of Germany. There, in the kitchen, stands sweet but stern Oma Günther, churning out her handmade sausage every morning while the entire town of Dickinson still slumbers away. Alright... maybe that's not exactly what's going on at The Wurst Shop in Dickinson, but have a bite of their sausage and a side of their German potato salad and tell us it's not possible!

Oma Günther isn't responsible for this lovingly crafted nosh. The love doesn't stop with the sausage, either. If you're extra hungry go for a Russian Reuben with some Kuchen for desert. The Wurst Shop also owns "The Wurst Wagon," which is currently (November 2016) parked in the Bowman Auto Parts parking lot near the Kum-and-Go at the corner of Hwy 12 & Main St. between 11 – 6pm.

On a clear day, you can arrive at the doorstep of El Paricutin within 15 minutes (it's about 9 miles away) from Aries Residence Suites South Heart. This "no-frills" Mexican-style restaurant is located 455 15th St. W. in Dickinson, and features creative burrito & taco combinations, quesadillas, papas rellenas, and breakfast all day. This is the kind of place that will quench your hankering for some south-of-the-border fare. You can order yourself a beer at the counter & listen to some live music – which they often have – while waiting for your carne asada tacos.

Cugini Italian Bistro is a new addition to the Williston restaurant-scape, having opened her doors in the summer of 2016. You'll be driving to 313 Main St. in downtown Williston for this experience, and we think you'll be glad you did! Nestled inside the Plaza, Cugini's is a small 12-table traditional Italian bistro carving out a reputation for handmade sauces, authentically crafted dishes, and fresh ingredients. Be prepared for a crowd... this place is like Sunday at Grandma's house. Don't worry: you can order carry out if you're feeling particularly reclusive that day!

Okay, as you may have figured out, nothing is very close to Aries Residence Suites 12 Mile Lodge, except a kind-hearted Aries staff and a beautiful view of the South Dakota sky. So traveling the 18 miles to this tucked away little family-owned restaurant at 107 8th Ave W. in downtown Williston is going to be what it takes to get some delightfully delicious restaurant grub. ESPECIALLY if you're into baklava or fresh Turkish food prepared from scratch. You will be greeted with smiles as you walk in the door, and the aroma of Middle Eastern will entice your appetite. Unlike other area dining options, Istanbul Kebab House offers many healthy and vegetarian options. You can't beat Istanbul House, with its flaming meat, killer hummus, and some of the best baklava one can obtain this side of Turkey.

So let us preface this by saying: if you are even thinking about getting dinner at Siggy's, prepare to arrive early. As in, early bird special early. This popular sandwich shop closes at 7:00pm, but you can definitely come in for a lunch, afternoon snack, and anything in between. And it is totally worth it! All sandwiches are made with freshly cut meat, veggies, and cheese. Our tip? Try The Curious George: peanut butter, sliced banana & bacon, served on sourdough with a drizzle of honey. You could also go with a tasty gyro, a healthy salad, or a hot soup for those freezing cold North Dakota days. We know that the 7:00pm closing time might be a bummer, but they have an awesome box lunch service, and the best news is: they deliver! So you can stop by at 113 Main St S, only a 10-minute car ride from your lodging, or just order delivery... so darn convenient!

Craving something out of the ordinary? Japanese cuisine is a popular choice across the country, and why should it be any different in Watford City? Tokyo Japanese Steakhouse has a beautiful interior, but the real draw is the unique dining options. We're talking bento boxes and Japanese beer up in here! Located just four miles (10-minute drive) from our Aries Bakken Suites accommodations, they're open for lunch and dinner. It's the only place in town to satisfy your sushi cravings! If seafood isn't your cup of (green) tea, fear not: as the name suggests, you can also order delicious steaks, prepared to perfection with a signature teriyaki sauce if you'd like. A great place to go out on a special occasion, or when you simply want to treat yourself to something shockingly indulgent in Watford City.

We all know that Tioga is a one-horse town: there's no getting around that fact. But that doesn't mean that you have to go hungry in North Dakota's oil capital. In fact, you can acquire a pretty decent meal without driving an hour to Williston. Take Lil's Diner at 11 1st St. NE, one block west of the hardware store on Main Street. This is your basic old fashioned diner serving up a respectable meal and good conversation - if you're interested in chatting up the senior coffee club playing bridge on 2 tables pushed together. You can count on fast service, hot coffee, and some good killer hash browns.

"The best burger in Bakken!" was the old 42 Grill's claim to fame, but now that this restaurant has found a new location at Located at 501 Elm Street in downtown Tioga, and changed their name to "42 Bistro" it has moved beyond the burger into a force to be reckoned with. With over 10 beers on tap, seafood, steaks, pastas, and fine wines, this once-upon-a-time burger dive is all grown up and out of the parent's basement. The best part? The restaurant hasn't forgotten where she came from: 42 Bistro still makes that super stacked, perfectly seasoned burger using fresh beef ground in-house.

This spectacular little-shack-that-feels-like-I'm-eating-in-my-friends-kitchen restaurant boasts THE BEST CHICKEN YOU HAVE EVER TASTED. No, that's not their tagline. That's the tagline we've bestowed upon Pollos Asados Rio Grande. About 3 miles from Aries Residence Suites Odessa at 1200 S. Grant Ave you will find the gold standard of street chicken. Let us put it to you like this: If this chicken were still alive he'd be a better dancer than John Travolta in Saturday Night Fever, waaaay more clever than James Bond, and have more followers than all the Kardashians put together. And, folks, that's just their chicken! The tacos are on.the.beam. The charred onion is an unexpected jewel atop this meal of grandeur. Of course, it's crowded. It's buttery. Last one, I promise: they have a drive-thru. >Mic drop<

First of all: this is generally a Mon – Fri lunch spot, only open from 11am to 2pm except for special occasions such as holidays & community events. Because of this, we want to let you know that besides our other pick – Pollo Asados Rio Grande - honorable mentions include the Barn Door Steakhouse and The Rose BBQ, which are both open for dinner. Now, back to Dee's Bistro. Located at 622 N. Lee on the corner of 7th & Lee in downtown Odessa, this is a 10-minute jaunt from your bed at Aries Residence Suites. Once a museum, then a library, and now a bistro, this quaint little spot has a very warm and inviting atmosphere. You've got soups, salads, sandwiches, savory crepes, and sweetly pleasing desserts. And in case you're worried this is some "girly lunch spot" know that they've got beef, fish, and chicken on the menu and live music on the stage. For something off the beaten path, Dee's Bistro fits the bill.

This little place is a sweet little diamond of a restaurant. What was once a gas station has been turned into one of Ozona's BEST restaurants! See?! Never let anyone tell you that you can't go from "gas station" to "dining destination!" Located on 1908 Avenue E between Santa Rosa St and Santa Anna St, this brightly colored little restaurant is adored by locals and passersby alike. If and when you do stop by, the must-try item on the menu is their brisket. In fact, you should probably call ahead just to make sure they haven't run out since it's so popular! It's one of the prime cuts of meat, and the cooks at Wagon Wheel BBQ know the tastiest way to serve it up. With the richest flavors, you won't even need any sauce to go with this brisket. You can also try the classic BBQ spare pork ribs for something more traditional. If you still have room, try the peach cobbler to complete this delicious, home style meal. Stop by this hidden gem, strike up a conversation with the owners, and enjoy the authentic atmosphere of Western Texas.

When you're a visitor of Texas, you can't miss the opportunity to have some authentic Tex-Mex! Located at 2101 15th St, Ozona's favorite spot for Tex-Mex fix is El Chato's. As soon as you walk in, you'll see what all the buzz is about. Colorful walls, chairs, and hanging flags make it look like this place would be ready for a fiesta at the drop of a sombrero! Stop by on a Friday to try their special fried catfish for something not so Tex-Mex-y. If seafood doesn't excite you, stick with what El Chato's is known for: tacos, fajitas, tamales, oh my! And desserts here are no afterthought - the selection of pies and cakes is absolutely fantastic, so make sure you save some room. And bring a wheel barrel. You may need to wheel yourself out. This place has the kind of surroundings that makes you feel like John Wayne should be walking through the door any minute. The smell of smoked meat wafting from the kitchen, long pine tables, various taxidermy wall-mounts, cowboys and farmers playing a game of cards in the corner, and a prominently positioned schoolhouse chalkboard with the featured daily specials.... And let me tell you, are these specials special! Serving breakfast, lunch & dinner, you just can't go wrong. The owner, Rick Sowell, only uses mesquite & smokes meat for a good long while. The spot is known for brisket, ribs, chicken and sausage, yet daily specials like king ranch chicken, fried chicken, or hand cut ribeye often win the day. Pretty much everything you order comes with a side, a salad, and some friendly conversation.

We're going to start off with this: There will be a wait. Be prepared and roll with it, because after you're done eating here, you may just have to roll out, too! Just under 3 miles from Aries' newest location in Ninnekah, your short drive to Paw Paw's at 702 W. Grand Ave. in Chickasha will be easy-peasy lemon-squeezy. Armed with an earnest staff looking to please their guests, and some killer daily specials at a bargain, it's hard to find a better dining experience in the area. "J & W Grill! Home of the Onion Burger!" since 1957. About a 10-minute drive from Aries Residence Suites Ninnekah, this is not your garden variety burger dive, although it certainly appears so. This joint runs on high energy staff with a knack for remembering names, a good sense of humor, and... the J&W Onion Burger. These onion burgers are the kind of thing that gets under your skin, and two weeks later, as you're watching Netflix and clipping your nails, you stop and say out loud, "Damn. I feel like an onion burger from J&W Grill. I'd better get myself to 501 W. Choctaw Ave. in Chickasha, Oklahoma!" Obviously, a place like this serves up a nice breakfast, the coffee is always hot, and if you're not in the mood for a burger their coney dogs with homemade 'slaw will tap you on the shoulder and say, "Onion burger schmunion burger." (Not literally. That would be weird.) Doing the same food the same way for 50 years is the sign of smiling customers, guaranteed.
